School of Art

ASU Herberger Institute for
Design and the Arts
Arizona State University

The School of Art fosters an innovative challenging and inclusive learning environment that supports creative and academic exploration and provides technical and professional mentoring. The School of Art is a nationally leading institution offering degrees in fine arts, fashion, art education, art history and museum studies. Young artists and scholars build relationships with world-renowned faculty teaching a range of courses in specialties equaled by few other institutions. Our programs engage students in a collaborative network at ASU and in the surrounding arts communities, preparing them to sustain their careers once they graduate. School of Art students successfully enter the professional world of art and culture with an entrepreneurial mindset as critical, strategic and creative thinkers.
