Alumni confirm the value of a W. P. Carey degree

“I chose ASU because it's the North Star in terms of supply chain education, and that is due to the synergy that is currently a mix of both academia and working professionals.

Studying at W. P. Carey, it's not only U.S. focused, but it's truly global — ensuring that we immerse ourselves into the different cultures and ways of doing business in different countries.”

— Christian Plesca,
W. P. Carey MS-SCM
