

Pace University 2023–2024 graduate fee schedule

General Institution Fee:	Per Semester (unless stated otherwise)
Pace University assesses a General Institutional Fee (GIF) to cover the costs of libraries and fitness centers, which support student services not covered by tuition. Many institutions charge similar fees or they assess separate fees for the aforementioned services. Pace University has consolidated the cost of these services into one concise fee for the convenience of its student population.	$456 for Pathways or Direct Admission students taking 12+ credits
