UConn

Becoming #UConnBound

IMPORTANT TASKS TO DO AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

- 1. Pay your enrollment fee by May 1
Your place at UConn is secured by completing your Reply Form, found in your applicant portal, and submitting the $400 non-refundable enrollment fee. The official deadline is May 1, but we recommend doing this straight away because it unlocks other actions you must take. If you are admitted after May 1, 2025, your enrollment fee is due within 2 weeks of the date marked on your acceptance letter.
- 2. Form I-20 process in ISSS Portal, and obtain your F-1 visa
The Form I-20 will enable you to apply for the F-1 Visa necessary to study in the United States. The I-20 and F-1 visa process should be started immediately as it is difficult to determine the length of time for processing.
- 3. Connect with UConn Nation
Your new campus community is made up of exceptional individuals who are ready to drive you to your fullest potential. Make sure you know all your opportunities to engage with others before you arrive.
- 4. Complete the housing application
Storrs campus housing applications must be submitted by May 23. The priority housing application deadline for UConn Stamford is also May 23. Submit your application online by visiting the Residential Life website.

Visit uconnbound.uconn.edu for detailed admitted student information.

Do you accept the offer of admission?*

- ☐ I ACCEPT my offer of admission.
☐ I DECLINE my offer of admission.

In order to develop an inclusive community for instruction, research and outreach, the University of Connecticut embraces diversity and cultivates leadership, integrity, and engaged citizenship among our students, faculty and staff. This collegiate and vibrant environment promotes and nurtures perspectives that are enabled through differences in culture, experience and values.

By securing your place at the University of Connecticut, you are agreeing to uphold the values established for our community.

As a reminder, you are required to notify the Office of Undergraduate Admissions should you be involved in any disciplinary matters prior to your arrival at UConn. Your offer of admission is contingent upon your ability to contribute positively to the UConn community. Should the information on your application be deemed untrue or if information comes to light that questions the integrity of your application for admission, the Office of Undergraduate Admissions reserves the right to reconsider your admission decision.

ACTIONS TO TAKE CLOSER TO ENROLLMENT

5. Register for Orientation

Beginning mid-April, you'll receive notification to attend UConn's Orientation Program, provided your enrollment fee has been received. All incoming students are required to complete orientation, where you'll learn about our academic programs, meet with an advisor and select your fall semester classes. Visit <https://orientation.uconn.edu/> for more information.

6. Submit your final transcript by July 1

Your official final high school/secondary school transcript, including graduation date, must be submitted to UConn directly from the secondary institution either electronically or by mail in a sealed envelope by July 1. Transcripts in a language other than English must be accompanied by a certified English translation.

7. Submit your Health History Form by July 1

Students who are not compliant with all required immunizations by the 10th day of classes will have a hold placed on their student record and will be unable to participate in the add/drop registration process.

Visit uconnbound.uconn.edu for detailed admitted student information.
