WHY STUDY AT UCONN?

International students choose to come to UConn not only for the University's rigorous academics and cutting-edge research opportunities, but also for its welcoming, inclusive community and safe and inspiring environment.

IDEAL NEW ENGLAND LOCATION

Located in the heart of New England, with charming towns, exciting cities, sandy beaches and stunning state parks, there's so much to discover in Connecticut. The state is famous in the USA for its breathtaking forests in autumn, which tourists from all over the country come to see.

Sandwiched between New York and Massachusetts, Central Connecticut is a perfect hub for train, bus or car travel to 3 major East-Coast cities: Boston, New York City and Providence.

WORLD-CLASS REPUTATION

UConn's excellent reputation for contributing to leading research initiatives is part of what makes it a world-class university. In 2010, UConn was invited into the Universitas 21 (U21) community, which now comprises 29 members in 20 countries. Other U21 members include some of the world's major institutions of higher education: National University of Singapore, University of Melbourne, University of Sydney, University of Edinburgh, University of Hong Kong, Fudan University, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, and University of Amsterdam.

U21 is one of the foremost global networks of research-intensive universities, committed to world-class, internationally-focused higher education and research.

MAXIMIZE YOUR CAREER POTENTIAL

UConn graduates are extremely well-prepared to meet the demands of today's job market. You'll benefit from having a wide range of employment resources at your fingertips — including the award-winning Center for Career Development, which can help you find job opportunities. You can meet one-on-one with career coaches and get advice from UConn alumni via the Mentor Network. A nationally acclaimed office, the Center won the "2020-21 Annual Excellence in Career Center Innovation Award" from the Career Collective.

The Center also holds career fairs, hosts webinars and sponsors an internship month. UConn prides itself on its career services and commitment to preparing students for a bright future after graduation.

5 CAMPUSES 1 UCONN

UConn's main campus in Storrs truly offers you the best of both worlds: an intimate, small-town setting in beautiful New England, and a location halfway between Boston and New York City. UConn Stamford puts students close to New York City with unbeatable access to internships. Three other regional campuses complete UConn's vibrant academic community.

UConn HARTFORD

1,524 UNDERGRADUATES
HOUSING: ON-CAMPUS* AT STORRS OR PRIVATE OFF-CAMPUS

A metropolitan setting in downtown Hartford, Connecticut's capital city. The campus is integrated with the Hartford Public Library, and near the Connecticut Science Center, Connecticut Convention Center and City Hall, providing hands-on learning opportunities.

UConn WATERBURY

783 UNDERGRADUATES
HOUSING: PRIVATE OFF-CAMPUS

An intimate campus located in a leading-edge facility in the revitalized downtown area of Waterbury. Students can enhance classroom study with internships, service opportunities and job shadowing in the Greater Waterbury community.

UConn AVERY POINT

522 UNDERGRADUATES
HOUSING: ON-CAMPUS* AT STORRS OR PRIVATE OFF-CAMPUS

You'll get all the benefits of a prestigious public research university in a small-college setting on the gorgeous Connecticut coastline. UConn Avery Point inspires students with specialized programs that take advantage of a waterfront location on Long Island Sound.

STORRS MAIN CAMPUS

18,983 UNDERGRADUATES
HOUSING: ON-CAMPUS

The University's flagship campus is a hub of innovation located in Storrs. The extensive grounds include impressive facilities and a richly diverse and active campus community, giving international students a true U.S. college experience. Storrs is an energizing and inspiring environment.

UConn STAMFORD

2,405 UNDERGRADUATES
HOUSING: ON-CAMPUS* OR PRIVATE OFF-CAMPUS

This campus is based in the financial hub of Stamford with its robust business community. Study at the center of this energizing city, steps from internships at Fortune 500 companies, cultural experiences and just a 50-minute train ride to New York City. Majors include Business Data Analytics, Computer Science, Economics, and Marketing Management.

* On-campus housing for regional campus students is based on space availability

JOIN A THRIVING CAMPUS CULTURE

Discover all that makes UConn such an exciting place to get your bachelor's degree. From a tremendous sense of community to a thrilling sports scene, UConn has truly earned its spot as one of the top public universities in the USA.

When you join UConn, you become a Husky: UConn's mascot and collective identity.

LIFE AS A UCONN HUSKY

At UConn, you'll find your classes to be challenging and enriching, your residence hall to be cozy and comfortable, and your on-campus opportunities to be virtually limitless. Let your passions guide you and join one or more of 700+ clubs and organizations, from the Ultimate Frisbee Team to the Forestry and Wildlife Club. Get involved in intramural sports. Attend campus events — including concerts, plays and stand-up comedy shows — at the Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts. In addition to your studies and extracurricular activities, many college students also find part-time work on campus.

EMBRACING 'HUSKYMANIA'

As a top Division I school with a long-standing reputation for excellence in sports, you'll find UConn's athletic events are not just a casual outing. Indeed, it's a lifestyle: Huskies eat, drink and breathe UConn sports. "Huskymania" is the endearing term used to describe the fever-like dedication of UConn sports fans. And for good reason — UConn teams have won 24 national championships, and its basketball and baseball teams are some of the best in the USA. What's more, attending a UConn sporting event is "a rite of passage" for students — and an experience that will likely stay with you forever.

A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF HUSKIES

UConn is a well-recognized, prestigious university that attracts hardworking students from around the globe. Students from 110+ countries make UConn a truly global campus. In all, more than 10% of students at UConn come from outside the USA, making it a highly attractive global academic destination. With 3,500+ international students, UConn provides a multicultural community where you'll have the chance to meet fellow students from your home country as well as engage with other cultures!

HEAR FROM INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

LIFE ON STORRS MAIN CAMPUS

At UConn, you'll enjoy a wide range of student housing options and state-of-the-art learning, dining and recreational facilities. Spread over 4,000+ acres, the Storrs main campus is like a small city in itself.

CAMPUS DINING

With so many food options to choose from, you'll certainly never go hungry as a UConn student. The University's award-winning cuisine is crafted to suit to a large variety of appetites. From vegetarian and gluten-free meals to Kosher and Halal food stations, UConn has no shortage of dining choices. The famous UConn Dairy Bar even serves delicious homemade ice cream!

The Storrs main campus is home to 9 on-campus restaurants and cafes, a number of food trucks and 8 dining units offering a range of meals across many cultures. As a UConn student, you'll have 3 meal plan options — all offering unlimited access to dining during operating hours.

STUDENT HOUSING

At UConn, your home away from home will feel comfortable, safe and secure. In total, 12,000+ students live on campus — one of the highest percentages among US public universities. UConn's 100+ housing options include residence halls, suites and apartments, and features such as volleyball courts, game and study rooms and lounges.

Based on your interests, you can sign up to live in specialized campus housing, such as a Learning Community, which are residence halls where students with similar academic interests live and study together. About 45% of first-year students join one of 30+ Learning Communities.

On-campus housing is guaranteed and required for first-year students at the Storrs main campus.

All rooms come furnished with:

- bed and mattress
- dresser/bureau
- closet or wardrobe
- desk/writing surface and chair
- cable TV connectivity (you bring the TV and cable cord)
- internet connectivity

“THE TEACHERS AND THE PROFESSORS ARE ALL VERY WELCOMING TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS. THEY MAKE US FEEL COMFORTABLE HERE AND UCONN IS HUGE ON DIVERSITY, SO THEY REALLY HELP US. OVERALL, THE CAMPUS IS REALLY GREAT — I DON'T FEEL IT'S BEEN HARD TO MOVE HERE FROM MY COUNTRY.”

YOUR DEGREE OPTIONS

UConn offers many undergraduate degree choices in different disciplines, and you can apply for first-year or transfer admission through Kaplan.

“I’M STUDYING BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES TO BECOME A CARDIOLOGIST, WHICH IS SOMETHING THAT’S FASCINATED ME SINCE I WAS A CHILD. DOCTORS CHANGE PEOPLE’S LIVES, AND THAT’S INSPIRED ME A LOT.”

First-year admission

When students are admitted to UConn after secondary school, they typically join Year 1 of a bachelor’s degree program — also known as “freshman” year.

Transfer admission

International students who have already completed some credits at a different university may be eligible to enter Year 2 or 3 (as a sophomore or junior) of a bachelor’s degree program at UConn. When you transfer credits you can continue your undergraduate studies and your degree will be awarded by UConn.

Which campus can I study at?

Most international students choose either UConn’s flagship campus in Storrs or UConn Stamford. Admission to UConn Stamford is slightly less competitive, making it an excellent choice for applicants. It is easy to transition between campuses after your first year.

Some majors require or allow students to be at a regional campus in Year 3 and 4 (see ■ or ♦ symbols on the next page).

OTHER ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

ACADEMIC CENTER FOR EXPLORATORY STUDENTS (ACES)

Many new UConn students are still deciding what major or discipline they want to earn a degree in. If you are among that group, the Exploratory-Unclassified program will help you navigate your options at UConn and choose a field of study, typically by the end of your second year. ACES also serves as the academic hub for UConn's pre-professional programs — see “▲” symbol on these pages for related professional degrees.

INDIVIDUALIZED MAJOR PROGRAM

Develop a customized major that's right for you, beyond the 115+ majors that the University offers. You can pursue classes offered within all schools and colleges across UConn.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS PROGRAMS

UConn offers both preparatory and supplementary programs aimed at supporting and enhancing students' academic success.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

High-achieving students can apply to UConn's special programs for a coordinated curriculum that includes 4 years of undergraduate preparation in any of UConn's bachelor's degree programs, followed by optional enrollment in one of UConn's affiliated graduate schools:

- Special Program in Dental Medicine
- Special Program in Law
- Special Program in Medicine

As part of the special pre-professional program, you'll receive one-on-one support to prepare you for the challenges of professional school. Opportunities include unique programming events, taking courses with graduate school professors, and mentorship from practicing professionals. A separate application is required for these highly competitive special programs, but once admitted, no extra tuition fee is charged. Please review additional application procedures:

UConn HONORS PROGRAM

Select students are invited by UConn to join the University's Honors Program, a tight-knit community of top performers who are eager to seek out new information, question presumptions and succeed.

Honors students work closely with the University's outstanding faculty and enjoy additional benefits, such as:

- faculty mentors
- graduate-level library privileges
- honors student housing
- priority class registration

UConn AMERICAN ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE (UCAELI)

Conditionally admitted students have the option to join UConn's American English Language Institute (UCAELI) to improve their English. The College Preparatory Experience provides English for Academic Purposes and study skills courses that prepare students for academic success when they progress to their degree.

This program is designed for students with high intermediate/advanced level English and provides 22 hours of language instruction per week.

Location: Main campus at Storrs

Intakes: May and July (6-week sessions); August (15-week session)

Tuition: $3,000 (6-week session); $6,500 (15-week session)

BEFORE YOU APPLY

To be considered for a place at UConn, you must meet the university's entry requirements. Get a more complete picture of the things you should know before you apply.

ESTIMATED COST OF ATTENDANCE

Tuition rate and costs* are shown for 1 academic year. This is only an estimated amount, as housing, meals and other expenses can vary.

Undergraduate tuition $39,000

University and student fees $4,734

Housing and meal plan $14,764

Other (books, health insurance, transportation and miscellaneous) $8,714

TOTAL EXPENSES† $67,212

* Prices are for the 2023–24 academic year; check online in Spring 2024 for the 2024–25 rate updates.

† Financial declaration minimum requirement for I-20 request. International students need to show evidence of funds (e.g. bank statement(s), sponsor letter) to cover their estimated cost of attendance for the first year of study.

SCHOLARSHIPS

UConn has a series of renewable merit scholarships for international applicants with a record of high academic achievement and outstanding leadership. All international first-year applicants are considered for UConn's Global Awards: renewable scholarships up to $15,000 per year‡. Apply for admission by December 1 for priority consideration. No separate application is required — awards are based on a holistic review of your application.

International students with GPA 3.7+ may apply for a highly competitive full cost-of-attendance Stamps Scholarship. Apply for admission by November 1, and then make the separate scholarship application by November 8.

‡ Based on awards offered to new students in Fall 2023. Amounts for new students may vary from year to year.

83%
OF ADMITTED STUDENTS WHO APPLIED WITH KAPLAN WERE AWARDED A UCONN SCHOLARSHIP IN 2023.

HOLISTIC APPLICATION REVIEW

When you apply to UConn, your application will undergo a holistic review to assess eligibility and suitability. This means no single piece of information — whether it's grade point average (GPA), class rank, essays, extracurricular activities, letters of recommendation (optional), or standardized test scores (optional) — will determine if you would be a good fit for UConn. Instead, selection is based on a comprehensive review of all the information you provide on your application, both academic and personal.

More than 50% of first-year UConn students on the Storrs main campus are in the top 10% of their senior high school class, while UConn Stamford and other regional campuses are less competitive. To be considered for a place at UConn, you must meet the criteria outlined below:

Minimum English entry requirements

TOEFL / TOEFL iBT Home 79

IELTS 6.5

Duolingo 100

SAT-EBRW (Evidence Based Reading and Writing) 510

Conditional admission may be offered to students who meet academic entry requirements but have lower English levels. This is valid for 1 year. English programs are available on campus throughUCAELI.

Minimum academic entry requirements

For first-year admission: at least GPA 3.0 in previous study

For transfer admission: GPA 2.7–3.5 (depending on your chosen UConn degree) in previous study, and 12 or more undergraduate credits from an accredited college or university

For Special Programs (medicine, law, etc.):
GPA 3.5 in previous study

 The average GPA of admitted students at Storrs campus is 3.5; average GPA at regional campuses is 3.0.

NEXT STEPS APPLICATION AND ADMISSION

1 SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION TO KAPLAN

Complete your application and upload copies of the items noted in the Application Checklist below.

2 APPLICATION REVIEW

Kaplan will notify you of any missing documents or information, and check specific requirements for your desired program. Once complete, Kaplan will submit your application to UConn — the standard application fee is waived.

3 COMPLETE YOUR APPLICATION

Activate your UConn student portal and check it regularly for outstanding tasks before your program's application deadline. Your application is not complete until UConn receives all your official supporting documents.

4 RECEIVE ADMISSION DECISION FROM UCONN

UConn will notify you of your admission decision on or close to March 1, if the application deadline for your program is before this date. You may be conditionally or unconditionally admitted, depending on your English proficiency.

5 ACCEPT YOUR OFFER AT UCONN

To secure your place at UConn, pay an enrollment fee and confirm your intent to enroll. You need to do this before May 1, or 2 weeks after your offer (if you receive it later).

6 REQUEST YOUR I-20 AND APPLY FOR A VISA

After UConn receives your enrollment fee and financial declaration, they issue a visa eligibility document (form I-20). Visa appointment and processing wait times vary greatly. Apply up to 365 days before the start date on your I-20.

7 COMPLETE PRE-ARRIVAL TASKS

Apply for housing by the relevant deadline (May 19 for Storrs campus) and complete any necessary forms and placement tests. It is important that you read and understand all the pre-arrival information you are given. Finally, be sure to pay the balance of your tuition and fees by the payment due date.

8 START AT UCONN!

Make travel arrangements to arrive in the USA in time for orientation. The schedule of events will help you meet new friends and learn about UConn.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

- application form completed and signed: kaplanpathways.com/uconn-apply
- proof of English proficiency
- official transcripts showing 4 years academic history (all high school and post-high school institutions attended)
- personal statement (250–650 words)
- 2 letters of recommendation (optional but encouraged)
- résumé or list of extracurricular activities (highly encouraged)
- copy of passport (and previous I-20 if you have one)
- SAT/ACT score (optional)
- Portfolio, audition or interview (fine arts degrees)

TOP TIP: WHAT SHOULD I PUT IN MY PERSONAL STATEMENT?

Your personal statement forms an important part of UConn's holistic application review. It is a great opportunity to let your individuality shine!

Focus on a personal topic that demonstrates your unique voice and writing ability. Topics could include: a meaningful story about your background or identity; an interest outside of studying; an important lesson you have learned; or a talent that you have.

KEY DATES TO KNOW

As with other top-tier US universities, UConn notifies most applicants of its admission decisions at the same time in March. The information on these pages will help you better understand UConn's application cycle, important deadlines and decision timeline.

Kaplan International works in partnership with the University of Connecticut to provide application counseling and admissions support to international students.

This brochure has been drafted in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate at the time of publishing, but changes (for example program content) are likely to occur given the interval between publishing and commencement of the program. It is therefore very important to check the website or contact us for any updates before you apply. Once you have applied, any change which impacts the terms and conditions of your offer or a significant part of your program will be communicated to you.
